TAXICAB DRIVER

Pursuant to By-law 603-05, each taxicab driver, while operating a taxicab, shall:

Obey all traffic laws;

Be neat and clean in appearance;

Punctually keep all appointments and engagements;

Maintain the interior and exterior of the taxicab within his control in a clean and tidy condition;

Take the shortest and quickest possible route to the destination of the passenger, unless the passenger directs the taxicab driver to take another;

Possess a current taxicab driver permit;

Take, consume or possess no alcohol or illicit drug;

Carry no more passengers than a number equal to the maximum insured capacity of the taxicab;

Use no type of scanning device;

Within six (6) days, provide the Clerk of any change of information provided on the permit application;

Display for public view in the taxicab the operator's taxicab driver permit;

Ensure that no person smokes in the taxicab.

No driver shall solicit any person to use a taxicab but the person wishing to use or engage such taxicab shall be left to choose freely without interruption or solicitation.

No driver shall, without reasonable excuse, refuse to serve the first person requiring the service of the taxicab at any place within the Municipality, at any time.

No driver shall knowingly mislead or deceive any passenger about the location or distance of any destination.

Every owner and every taxicab driver shall charge customers the rates established in Schedule B to this by-law.
